

An Abstract of the CHARTER Granted by his late Majesty King Charles II. (ever blessed Memory) for erecting a Corporation for Relief of Poor Widows and Children of CLERGYMEN: Dated July 1. 1678.

HIS said late MAJESTY having taken Notice, That divers Charitable Persons had appeared very forward in Contributing to the Relief of such of the Widows and Children of Loyal and Orthodox Clergy-men, as were Poor; and the good Effect the same had: And taking into his Princely Consideration the Great Sufferings of many of the Clergy in England for their Loyalty; was graciously pleased by his CHARTER under the Great Seal of England, to Ordain, Constitute and Grant, that the Persons therein named, and their Successors (to be Elected, as is therein expressed) Be one Body Politick and Corporate by the Name of The Governours of the Charity for Relief of the Poor Widows and Children of Clergy-men: And that by the same Name they should have perpetual Succession; and be capable to Purchase, Have or Take Mannors, Lands and Hereditaments, &c. not exceeding the Yearly Value of Two Thousand Pounds; and all manner of Goods and Chattels, and to dispose thereof; And by that Name to Plead and to be Impleaded in all Actions, &c. and to act all other Matters and Things, as fully as any other Body Politick in this Realm can do: And that the said Governours should have one Common Seal.

And his said late Majesty did further Grant to the said Governours, That there should be a President, Vice-President, three Treasurers, and Forty two Assistants, Members of the said Corporation; and that they, or any Five of them (whereof the President, Vice-President, or one of the Treasurers to be one) should be called The COURT of ASSISTANTS of the said Corporation, who should have the Management of all the Affairs of the said Corporation, and should make Laws and Ordinances for the good Government thereof, as well in Matters concerning the Corporation, as in Electing of Officers, and Management of their Revenues; and impose Penalties on the Offenders against the said Laws, and recover the same to the Use of the said Corporation.

And therein it is appointed, that the Persons thereby constituted to be First President, Vice-President, Treasurers and first Assistants, should continue in their respective Places until the Second Thursday in November 1679. and from thenceforth until there should be a new Choice made of Persons to succeed them.

And that on every Second Thursday in November for ever (or oftener if there be occasion) there should be a General Assembly of the said Governours; and the major Part of the Members then present, might choose a President, Vice-President, three Treasurers, and forty two Assistants, who should continue for the Year following; and that in case of the Death of any of the said Officers within the Year, others might be chosen at a General Assembly in their Places.

And that such General Assembly might Elect such other Person or Persons to be Members and Governours of the said Corporation, as they, or the greatest Part of them, should think fit.

And that the President, Vice-President, and Treasurers above-nam'd, should, before they enter upon their Places, take their Oaths before the Lord Chancellor faithfully to execute their respective Trusts: And that all the other Members of the said Corporation before they act as Assistants; and all succeeding Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, Assistants, and all other their inferior Officers, should take the like Oath, before the Persons by the said CHARTER empowered to administer the same.

And that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord High Chancellor of England, Lord Archbishop of York or Lord Bishop of the Great Seal of England, Lord High Treasurer, Lord Bishop of London, Lord Almoner, and the Lord Mayor of London for the time being, should be Visitors of the said Corporation, and settle all Differences about the Government thereof, and the Disposition of their Revenues.

The NAMES of the present Governours, being all Sons of Clergymen, some of which are Named in the said Charter, and the rest since chosen Governours, as other Persons of worth will be as they come to be known.

It is thought requisite to give notice, that the Governors of this Charity (by the Assistance of many worthy Persons, who have bountifully contributed therunto; and whose Names are registred as Benefactors) have not only made some Purchases as a yearly Fund; but also distributed within the last Twenty Years, among poor Widows and Children of Clergymen several Thousand Pounds (beside what has been Collected at the Annual Feast; which, according to Custom, hath been generally paid by the Stewards, for putting out Clergymens Children Apprentice: But the Number of Widows and Children who did partake of the same, was so great, that each Person's Share was very inconsiderable; the largest Pension Allowed to such Widows, not being above three Pounds, unless where the Charity is otherwise particularly directed by the Donor: And this Charity being now publickly known, more poor Widows and Children do daily in great Numbers apply themselves for Relief; to whose VVants this Corporation is not yet enabled to make any proportionable Supply. To the end therefore, that the present Poor may have some comfortable Relief, and that some further Purchase may be made, and settled for Increase of this Fund to Posterity: It is hoped that considerable Contributions will be made by all well-disposed Persons in all Parts of this Kingdom; particularly that such Governors and Clergymen as have not already contributed, would encourage this Charity by Subscription, or otherwise: such a certain Method and Security being established for the due Administration of the same; so that nothing can be diverted to any other Use.

All Persons who have already subscribed, and such who shall please to give any present Sum, or Annual Benefaction, are desired to pay the same to the present TREASURERS.
 John Bee, Gent. at his House in Greenwich in Kent.
 Thomas Hussey, Haberdasher of Hats, near the Temple in Fleetstreet.
 George Martin, Silk-man in Pater-noster Row.
 Or either of them, or the succeeding Treasurers, or to any Person deputed under the Hand and Seal of any of them.

And all Persons who have collected any Money for the said Corporation, are desired to pay the same to the said Treasurers, or one of them, or to give an Account thereof to Mr. William Pocklington, Register of this Corporation, an Attorney, living in Newgate-street, London: To whom all Persons who shall please to promote this Charity, or have any thing to communicate concerning the same, may direct Letters, as occasion shall require.

William Pocklington, Register.
